

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: FOLDER

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

Today we talked about remembering God's blessings so our faith can be strengthened. When we remember God's goodness, it boosts our faith. We are able to trust God through trials and tough times because of all he has done for us already.

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Take some time with the kids to count the blessings God has given you as a family.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- How did Joshua remind the Israelites of God's faithfulness?
- Why is it important to remember God's blessings?
- How has God been faithful to you?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Obey me, and I will be your God and you will be my people. Walk in obedience to all I command you, that it may go well with you." Jeremiah 7:23b (NIV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

How has God been faithful to you? Ask and answer that question for yourself. Share it with your kids. Remember what God has done, and let it strengthen your own faith.
